REASON FOR VOTE.

I vote "no" on the resolution to adjourn Wednesday, September 21st, because I wanted to vote to adjourn today but could not get to offer an amendment to adjourn today. We have now been in session a week longer than was necessary to pass the measures submitted by the Governor.

TERRELL of Cherokee.

HOUSE BILL ON FIRST READING.

The following House bill, introduced today, was laid before the House, read first time, and referred to the appropriate committee, as follows:

By Mr. West of Cameron, Mr. Lasseter, Mr. Terrell of Cherokee, Mr. Gilbert, and Mr. Dunlap:

H. B. No. 101, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Article 8225, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended by Chapter 27, General Laws, Fourth Called Session, Forty-first Legislature, as amended by Chapter 21, General Laws, Second Called Session, Forty-second Legislature, prohibiting mineral development on coastal lands used for navigation purposes so long as said lands are used for navigation purposes by any navigation district or by the United States Government, and declaring an emergency."

Referred to Committee on Conservation and Reclamation.

HOUSE BILL NO. 84 ON PASSAGE TO ENGROSSMENT.

The Speaker laid before the House, as pending business, on its passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 84, A bill to be entitled "An Act preventing punishment for violation of illegal injunctions," the bill having been read second time on yesterday.

Mr. Burns of Walker raised a point of order on further consideration of the bill on the ground that the subject matter contained in the bill has not been submitted by the Governor.

(Pending consideration of the point of order, Mr. Keller occupied the chair temporarily.)

(Speaker in the chair.)

The Speaker declined to rule on the point of order, stating that he would submit the matter to the House for its decision.

The House overruled the point of order.

Mr. Petsch offered the following (committee) amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 84, by striking out all of Sections 1 and 2 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 1. Any person charged with the enforcement of a penal law, upon being cited for contempt upon an alleged violation of an injunction issued by a court restraining the enforcement of such law, shall be entitled to plead the validity of such statute, and or the invalidity of such injunction, and sentence shall be suspended until the validity, or invalidity, of such law, or injunction, shall be finally determined."

And by renumbering "Section 3" as "Section 2."

Mr. Beck offered the following amendment to the (committee) amendment:

Amend (committee) amendment No. 1, by adding at the end of Section 1, the following:

"Provided, however, that provisions of this act shall not apply in cases involving property rights."

The amendment by Mr. Beck was lost.

Mr. Duvall offered the following amendment to the (committee) amendment:

Amend (committee) amendment to House bill No. 84, by adding Section 2, as follows:

"No person charged with the enforcement of a penal law referred to in Section 1 shall be entitled to plead the validity of such statute and/or the invalidity of such injunction as provided in Section 1 hereof unless he shall first post a bond of one thousand dollars ($1000), acceptable to the district court granting such injunction, said bond to be in favor of the person sought to be protected by the injunction for the purpose of protecting such person against any loss or damage suffered by reason of the alleged violation; and the person so injured or damaged shall upon the invalidity of the statute and/or the validity of the injunction having been favorable determined recover upon the bond so posted the amount of his damage."

Mr. Keller offered the following substitute for the amendment by Mr. Duvall:

Amend House bill No. 84 by providing a new paragraph to read as follows:

"Provided, however, that where a contempt sentence is suspended that the officer violating the court's injunction shall make a good and sufficient bond in double the amount of the property or property rights likely to be damaged or jeopardized by reason of the officer's action prior to such suspension."

The amendment by Mr. Keller was lost.

Mr. Graves offered the following substitute for the amendment by Mr. Duvall:

Amend (committee) amendment to House bill No. 84:

"Provided further, that the persons affected by such injunction shall have a right to plead invalidity of such order, and such issue shall be immediately tried by the judge granting such injunction within ten days and pending such trial no punishment shall be inflicted upon the persons charged with the violation of such order: if there be no court in session at the time and place and in the court granting such injunction, then the judge granting such injunction shall immediately transfer the said cause to the nearest district court then in session, where the said cause shall proceed to trial as above provided."

Mr. Duvall moved to table the substitute amendment, and the motion to table was lost.

Question next recurring on the amendment by Mr. Graves, it was adopted.

The amendment as substituted was then adopted.

Mr. Farmer offered the following substitute for the (committee) amendment:

Substitute these words for (committee) amendment to House bill No. 84:

Amend House bill No. 84, by striking out all of Sections 1 and 2 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Any member of the Highway Commission, agent, or employe thereof, charged with the enforcement of a penal law, upon being cited for contempt of court for alleged violation of an injunction issued by a district court restraining the enforcement of such law, shall be entitled to a suspension of the contempt proceedings until the validity or invalidity of such law or injunction shall be determined by the Court of Criminal Appeals or the Supreme Court of Texas."

And by renumbering "Section 3" as "Section 2."

Mr. Van Zandt moved the previous question on the pending amendments and the bill, and the main question was ordered.

Mr. Burns of McCulloch moved to reconsider the vote by which the previous question was ordered.

The motion to reconsider was lost.

Question recurring on the substitute amendment by Mr. Farmer, yeas and nays were demanded.
